JUS VINI

Journal of Wine & Spirits Law
Revue de droit du vin et des spiritueux

Jus Vini, the Journal of Wine & Spirits Law, is a bilingual (English/French) peer-reviewed legal journal published twice a year (June and December), promoting legal scholarship in the field of wine and spirits law.

Jus Vini publishes articles, essays, case law notes, reports, briefs and book reviews on national and international laws concerning wines and spirits as well as the analysis of significant case law and the evolution of the legal theories underpinning the law. The Journal has a strong comparative bent.

*Any material published in the Journal reflects the views and opinions of each individual author and neither the Wine & Law Program, nor the AIDV are responsible for, or assume, any liability in relation to those materials.

It is edited by the Wine & Law Program – A Jean Monnet Chair, of the University of Reims (www.wine-law.org), with the support of the AIDV-IWLA (Association Internationale des Juristes du Droit de la Vigne et du Vin).*

The Journal is published by Mare & Martin, specializing in Law, Political Science and History of Art (www.mareetmartin.com).
